APD FILE # 2016- 23599 RELEASE # 1

DATE OF RELEASE: June 8, 2016

Incident: Serious Injury Single Vehicle Crash

June 8, 2016 at 3:33 pm, the Abbotsford Police Department responded to a single vehicle collision in the 2800 block of Ash Street. Abbotsford Fire Rescue Service personnel, BC Ambulance staff and Abbotsford Police Patrol Division arrived on scene and began assisting the 3 injured occupants who were transported by BC Ambulance Services to the hospital for treatment of injuries. One 17-year-old female passenger is suffering serious injuries, the two other occupants sustained non-life threatening injuries. At this time, it appears that weather and slippery road conditions are the contributing factors.

The area was closed to traffic for several hours to allow APD Collision Reconstructionists and Patrol Division Officers to investigate this serious injury crash.

That investigation is on-going. Witnesses spoke to police at the scene. However, anyone who witnessed the collision, and has not yet contacted police, is asked to call 604-859-5225 or text us at 222973 (abbypd)
