Incident: Uttering Threats Charges against Facebook User

Abbotsford – June 16, 2017

On Wednesday, June 14, 2017, Facebook Corporate Offices received messages from a user who was apparently upset because of the removal of a post he made. He threatened to cause damage and to kill people with guns and bombs that he purportedly had access to. Facebook employees contacted the Abbotsford Police Department just after noon on Thursday, June 15.

The APD's Emergency Response Team, Major Crime Unit, Crime Reduction Unit and Patrol Division Officers attended a residence in the 2500 block of Hill-Tout Street and arrested the suspect in a parking lot without incident at 6:00pm on June 15. A subsequent warrant search of the suspect's home located numerous devices capable of connecting to the internet (8 cell phones and 4 computers) as well as several suspected controlled substances.

20-year-old Jordan Richard STALLWOOD has now been charged with two counts of Uttering Threats, and Possession of Controlled Substances. STALLWOOD was previously charged in relation to a May 2017 incident in which he allegedly threatened the lives of police officers via Facebook.

Anyone with information about this investigation is asked to contact the Major Crime Unit of the Abbotsford Police Department at 604-859-5225.
