Abbotsford Police City Basketball Tournament

The Abbotsford Police Department City Basketball Tournament has become one of the most exciting events on the local sports calendar! This immensely popular tournament starts today, and culminates with finals running all day on Saturday, December 15th at the Columbia Bible College.

In this, the tournament's seventh year, over 60 teams and 900 athletes will compete in more than 100 games for city-wide bragging rights! Both boys' and girls' teams from grade eight through senior levels will be participating. We encourage everyone from the community to come out to support our young athletes – and to enjoy the competitive spirit of the games!

This annual event is made possible through the efforts of the APD, the Abbotsford Police Foundation, the Abbotsford School District, many generous sponsors and countless dedicated volunteers.

*Our Mission:
To make Abbotsford the safest city in B.C.*

This event is another opportunity for our community to come out to support the numerous youth who are making great choices and playing high caliber basketball. Packing the stands for these games is a tangible way that parents, grandparents, family, friends, neighbours and others in the community can demonstrate that our city, and the youth in it, really matter!
