APD NEWS RELEASE:

A.P.D. FILE # 2018- 27362

RELEASE# 1

DATE OF RELEASE: July 20, 2018

Incident: Search warrant leads to arrests, drugs and weapons seizure

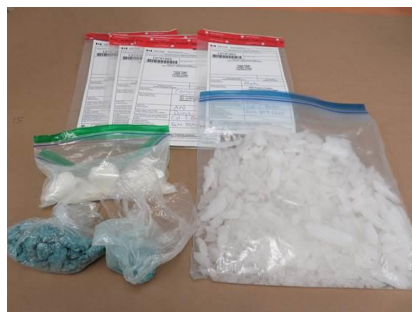

On July 19, 2018 members of the Abbotsford Police Drug Enforcement Unit (DEU) with the assistance of patrol, the Gang Crime Unit (GCU) and the Emergency Response Team (ERT) conducted a CDSA search warrant at a residence on Larch St in Abbotsford.

Evidence located in the residence consists of 464 grams of methamphetamine, 60 grams of cocaine, 60 grams of fentanyl, and other evidence consistent with drug trafficking. Police also located two conductive energy weapons (Tasers).

Charges of possession for the purpose of trafficking ("PPT") in fentanyl, methamphetamine and cocaine along with breach and weapon charges are being pursued.

Two individuals were arrested during this investigation:

- A 47 year old male has been remanded into custody on previous weapons and drug charges with new charges pending.
- An adult female was released on process with charges pending.
